

Sunday, June 4, 2023
12–8pm

STAGE 1

MC: Kay Sedia

Kay Sedia is a comedic drag artist, Tupperware party superstar and creator of “Taco Kisses,” a “juan woman cho” of hilarious anecdotes and singing parodies.

12–12:05pm | Latinx Staff & Faculty Forum | Intro

Chapman University’s Latinx Staff and Faculty Forum supports Latinx students, staff and faculty by developing connections between them and the greater Chapman community.

12:05–12:20pm | Danza Azteca | Blessing Ceremony

As Kalpulli Hueyatl Wanawna, this cultural dance group in Anaheim practices teachings, dances, and songs that reflect many generations’ worth of cultural heritage.

12:20–12:35pm | Mariachi Panteras (Chapman University)

Chapman University’s Mariachi Panteras is the first collegiate mariachi ensemble in Orange County, performing traditional Mexican music from various regions.

1:05–1:35pm | Mariachi Folklore

Directed by Orange County mariachi educator and performer Oscar Garibay, Mariachi Folklore is a professional mariachi that performs authentic mariachi entertainment to its community.

2:15–3pm | Mantra

Mantra is a local rock en español cover band from Santa Ana.

3:45–4:30pm | Gabriela Penka

With a sound that is equal parts dirty ska, cumbia and punk, Gabriela Penka spreads its message of joy, cultural preservation and social justice.

5:15–6pm | Los Waraperos

Hailing from Los Angeles, Los Waraperos play cumbia mixed with punk.

Sundown Dance Party

6:30–8pm | Son Rompe Pera

Kings of cumbia punk, Mexico City’s Son Rompe Pera breathe new life into the traditional Mexican marimba, marrying its familiar sound with punk and psychobilly.

Musco Center Presents

HEARTBEAT OF

MEXICO

El Latido del Corazón Mexicano

Presented in association with

Latinx Staff and Faculty Forum

Free Family Festival

STAGE 2

MC: Alisa Reyes

Alisa Reyes is best known for voicing LaCienega Boulevard in Disney Channel’s “The Proud Family” and being on the original cast of Nickelodeon’s “All That.”

12:35pm, 1:35pm, 3pm, 4:30pm | Dance Workshops with Claudia de la Cruz

Claudia de la Cruz has studied flamenco and other Latin styles with some of the most recognized maestros in Spain, and has performed around the world.

12:50–1:05pm | El Sol Academy

El Sol Science and Arts Academy of Santa Ana offers a college prep environment focused on the sciences and arts and team teaching with a dual immersion program.

1:50–2:15pm | Ballet Folklórico Las Estrellas (Orange County School of the Arts)

Las Estrellas de OCSA features some of the most talented Ballet Folklórico students from the school’s International Dance Conservatory.

Thank you to our community partners:

True Inmobiliaria, Alianza Translatinx, Chapman Alumni, CASA OC, The Frida Cinema, Chapman Town and Gown, and Mexican Consulate.

Thank you to our Chalk Art Contest sponsor:

BLICK
art materials

AITKEN
ARTS PLAZA

3:15–3:45pm | Relámpago del Cielo Grupo Folklórico
Relámpago del Cielo is Orange County’s longest running Mexican folk dance company and studio, helping preserve traditional Mexican performing arts through music, folklore and dance.

4:45–5:15pm | Técnica Arte y Folklore

Técnica Arte y Folklore take great pride in showcasing unique and authentic dance choreography accompanied by traditional music and vestuario (wardrobe) from Mexico.

ACTIVITIES

Arte Textil with Adriana Martinez

Panic Amphitheater | 12–3pm

Adriana Martinez is a multimedia artist, muralist, educator, and community art advocate who supports the preservation of traditional art-making practices and Mexican folk art.

Flores de Papel & Papel Picado with Uplifting Soul Art Panic Amphitheater | 3–6pm

Uplifting Soul Art connects with people of all ages via educational art activities and workshops that empower them to get creative through crafts, art installations, and live entertainment.

Live Community Mural with Roger Eyes R.

Plaza Booth #8 | 12–6pm

Roger Eyes R. is a multi-disciplinary artist, teaching artist, live painter, muralist, illustrator, designer, sculptor, and self proclaimed art-nerd from Santa Ana.

Live Painting with Franky Castle

Plaza Booth #2 | 12–6pm

Inspired by world culture and the human spirit, Franky Castle is a self-taught artist expressing himself through bold color harmonies and intuitive brush strokes.

Chalk Art Contest

Check in at Plaza Booth #1 | 9am–1pm

Loteria with Kay Sedia

Beer Garden | 1:15pm, 2:30pm, 4pm, 5:30pm

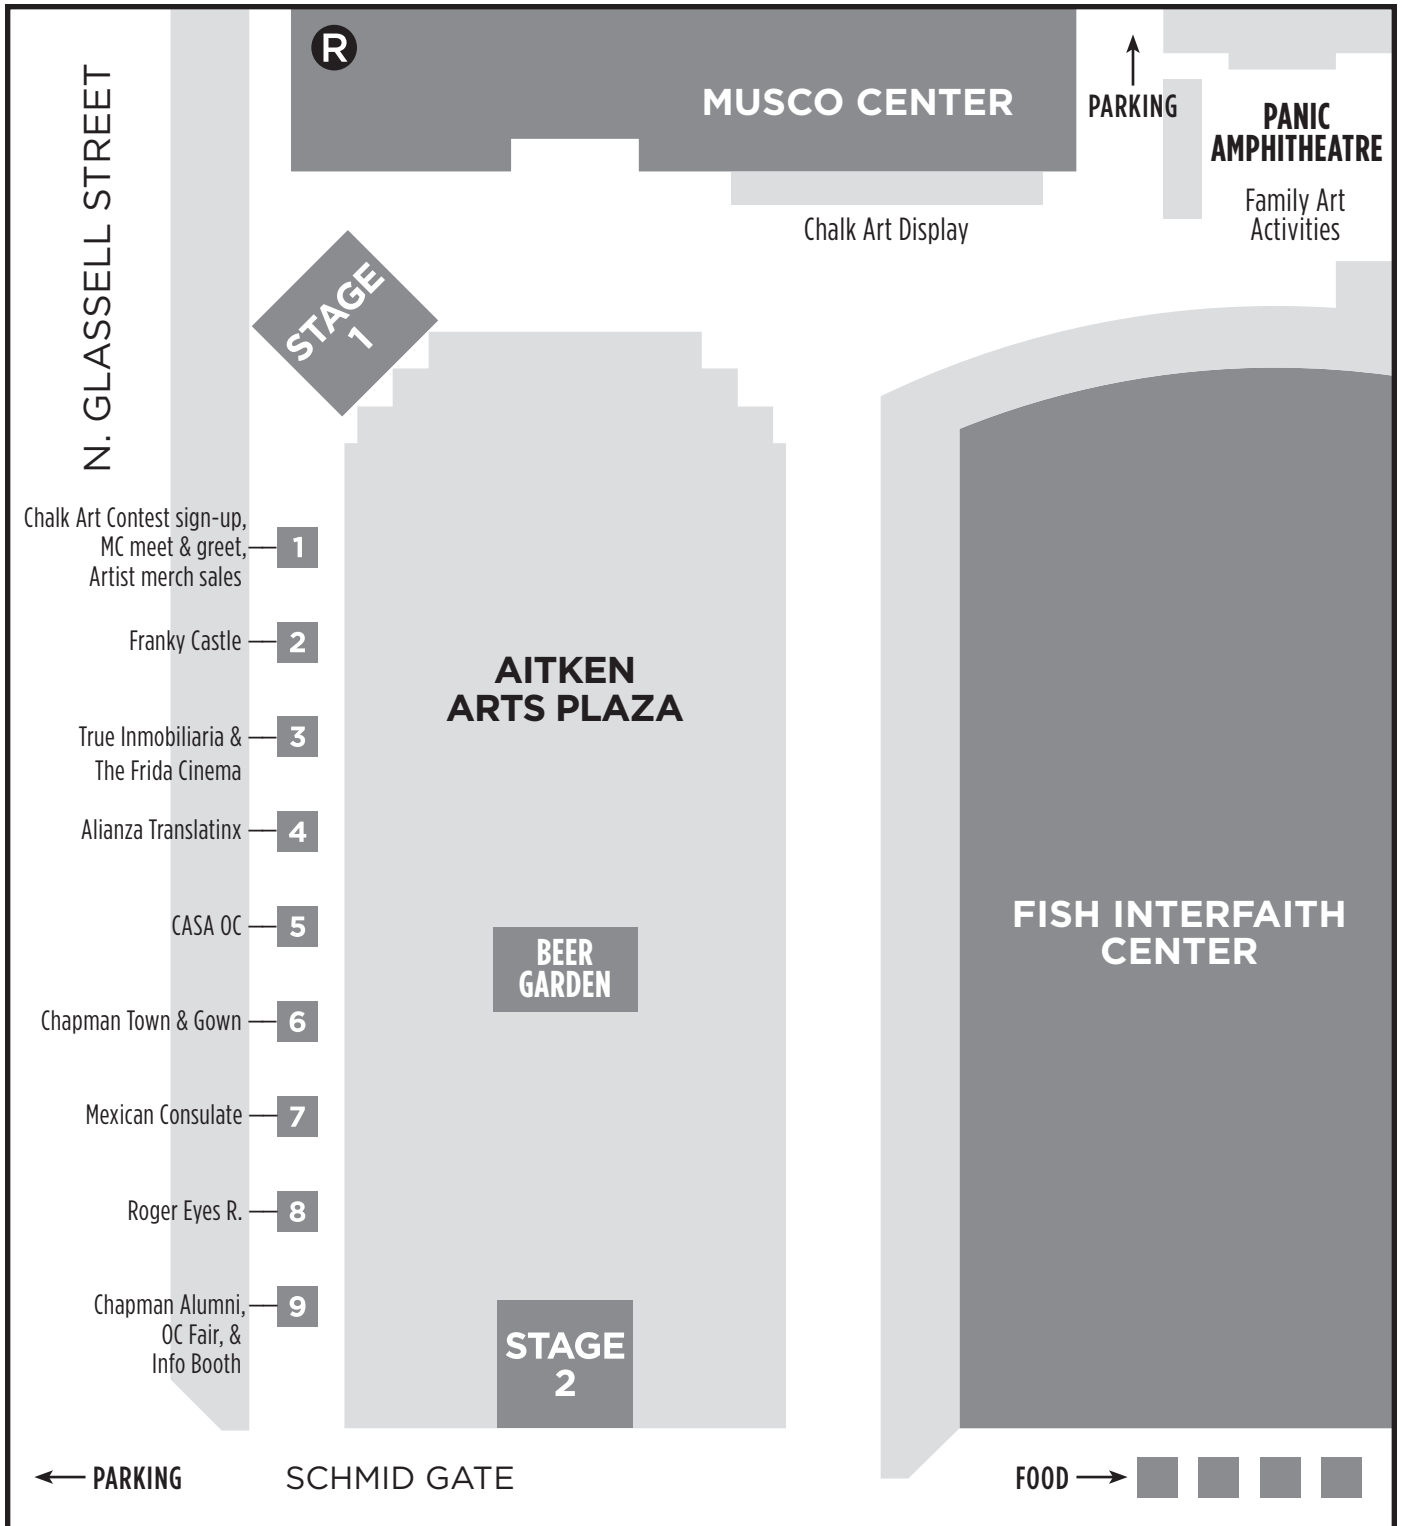

Artists, times, and locations subject to change.

MARYBELLE AND SEBASTIAN P.
MUSCO CENTER FOR THE ARTS
Chapman University

 CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY

muscocenter.org | 844-OC-MUSCO | 415 N. Glassell Street, Orange, CA 92866

Musco Center Presents
HEARTBEAT OF MEXICO
 El Latido del Corazón Mexicano
 Presented in association with
Latinx Staff and Faculty Forum

INFO BOOTH: Questions, Lost & Found, and Ticket information.

R Restrooms